

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Writing Spot: Do you believe in the fountain of youth?

Learning Outcome

Describe routines and regular activities in a wider range of social and work contexts.

Ask your partner:

- Have you ever done anything crazy to stay young and healthy?
- What about celebrities in your country? What do they do to stay young and healthy?

Can Do Statements

- I can write about staying healthy.
- I can write about experiences I've had or haven't had.
- I can write about advice and solutions.

Let's Explore!

Nowadays*, what should people do to fight the aging process?

* "Nowadays" means now, compared to the past.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Over the years, people have tried to fight against the aging process in different ways. Some famous people have done desperate things in their fight against old age. For example, Charlie Chaplin and Christian Dior tried to stay young by getting injections that had cells from goats!

Nowadays, many scientists think that proper diet is one of the secrets of long life. So far they have proven this to be true only in regards to animals. They have not gathered enough evidence to prove that this is also true for humans. Nonetheless, many experts think that certain foods may help slow down the deterioration caused by age. Indeed, certain vitamins, such as vitamins E and C, seem to have this effect. Therefore, people ought to eat more foods, like spinach, nuts and fruit, containing these vitamins.

If people really want to extend their lives, they had better exercise. Exercise causes the muscles, the heart, and the lungs to all work better.

Let's Practice!

Diet and exercise are the key to staying young and healthy!

*"diet" means the food that you eat.

Instructions: Read the text and underline all the sentences that give advice or solutions.

My friend asked me recently how she can fight the aging process. She thinks I look young for my age. I told her that I work hard to look good! If you are desperate to fight against old age, you ought to drink lots of water. Doctors say you should drink at least 8 glasses a day! You had better stay out of the sun and use sunscreen, too. The sun is a major cause of the deterioration of your skin. Of course you need to exercise regularly and take vitamins every day.

Let's Practice!

Have you ever written* about your health?

* You use the Present Perfect tense to "write" about past events that have a connection to the present.

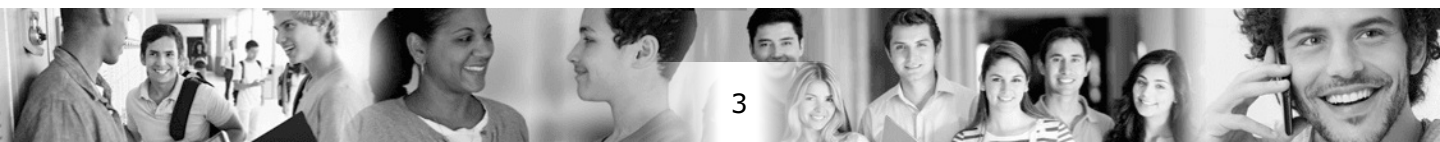

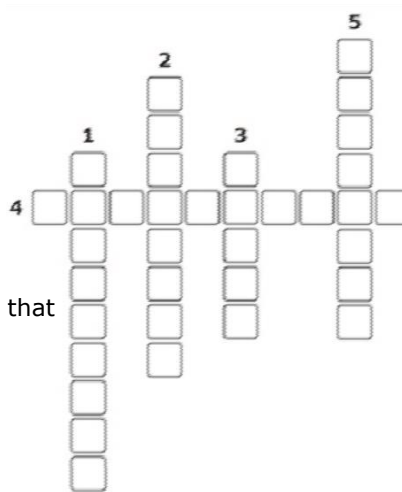

Instructions: Read the clues. Fill in the Across and Down clues to correctly. Complete the crossword. You may re-read the paragraph on page 2 if necessary.

DOWN

1. Over the years, people _____ to fight against the aging process in different ways. (2 words)
2. Some famous people _____ desperate things in their fight against old age. (2 words)
3. Christian Dior _____ to stay young by getting injections that had cells from goats!
5. They have not _____ enough evidence to prove that it is also true for humans.

ACROSS

4. So far they _____ this to be true only in regard to animals.

Extension Activity

Let's talk about staying young and healthy!

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Write down 6 words about health on 6 different squares of paper. They can be verbs, nouns, adjectives ...
- Your partner will also write 6 words.
- Mix up all the squares together.
- One person will choose a word and try to talk as long as possible using that word as a topic/starting point.
- When you can't think of more to say, your partner will choose the next word.

Self-Assessment

Yes No

I write down 6 words about health.

☐ ☐

I use a word as a starting point for a conversation about health.

☐ ☐

My partner and I take turns talking about health.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- process (noun): the way that something is done
e.g. Many people try to fight the aging process.
- desperate (adjective): showing hopelessness about a situation that cannot be changed e.g. Charlie Chaplin was desperate in his attempt to stay young.
- injection (noun): a process by which a liquid is put into the body using a needle e.g. Chaplin had special injections to help him stay young.
- cell (noun): the smallest part of a living organism
e.g. Chaplin had injections of goat cells.
- goat (noun): an animal with horns, usually living on a farm e.g. My father had many goats on his farm.
- deterioration (noun): the process of becoming worse
e.g. Vitamins help slow down the deterioration of the body.
- vitamin (noun): any of a group of organic compounds necessary for healthy growth of body and mind
e.g. Vitamins C and E are important to fight the aging process.

Learning Points

Writing About Health

When writing short informative texts, you can use discourse markers to connect your ideas.

Discourse markers are words and phrases that help to develop ideas and relate them to each other. You use discourse markers in writing more than speaking as they tend to sound more formal.

Discourse markers usually come at the beginning of the sentence, marked with a comma (,).

Look at the chart for some examples of discourse markers:

Discourse Marker	Meaning
Nevertheless	But, However, Even though
Indeed	In fact
Furthermore	And, Also
In addition	And, Also
Therefore	As a result

Examples:

- Nevertheless, many experts think that certain foods prolong life.
- Therefore, people had better eat more of these foods.

Offering Advice and Solutions

You can often use should or ought to with little difference in meaning when you give advice, make a recommendation or give a solution to a situation.

Examples:

- People ought to/should exercise more to improve their heart health.
- People ought to/should eat healthier to fight the aging process.

