

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

• Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

People are living longer. Are they still healthy?

Learning Outcome

Describe routines and regular activities in a wider range of social and work contexts.

Ask your partner:

- What do you do to stay healthy?
- What foods do you think people shouldn't eat?
- How much exercise are you getting?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about healthy habits.
- I can talk about what people do or what people are doing.
- I can give advice and talk about necessity.

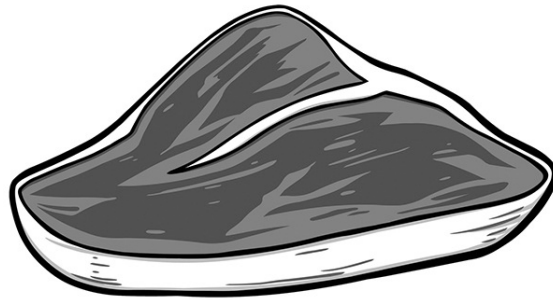

Let's Explore!

Eating too much red meat is not good for seniors!

* "Seniors" are men and women over 65.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Today, Americans are living longer. Perhaps it's because they are eating healthier food. They smoke less and exercise more. They stay alert by maintaining an active lifestyle. More and more retirees are volunteering. They are going back to school. They travel more. So, what does this teach us? To live longer, we should continue to learn. We ought to travel. If we can't, we've got to at least get out and walk. We're going to have to stay physically active.

Seniors who visit the doctor regularly also live longer. Of course, we ought to follow our doctor's advice! Also, we had better take the recommended medication. Finally, we've got to look at our diets. Most of us ought to reduce the number of sweets we eat. We're going to have to cut down on red meat consumption as well. Ideally we ought to look at our health and lifestyle. We had better do this sooner than later. To live longer healthy lives, we've got to make those changes now.

Let's Practice!

What advice does Sally give?

Instructions: Use the words from the box to correctly complete the sentences. Read the sentences aloud. Check your pronunciation with your instructor.

Word Bank

we ought to / we've got to look / 've got to / had better do / we should continue / had better take / we've got to make / re going to have

1. To live longer, _____ to learn.
2. Ideally _____ look at our health and lifestyle.
3. We _____ the recommended medication.
4. If we can't exercise, we _____ at least get out and walk.
5. Finally _____ at our diets.
6. We' _____ to cut down on red meat consumption.
7. To live longer healthy lives, _____ those changes
8. We _____ this sooner than later.

Let's Practice!

How are retirees' lives changing?

Instructions: Classify the sentences into the correct category.

1. Perhaps it's because they are eating healthier food.
2. Seniors who visit the doctor regularly also live longer.
3. They travel more.
4. They are going back to school.
5. They stay alert by maintaining an active lifestyle.
6. They smoke less and exercise more.
7. More and more retirees are volunteering.
8. So what does this teach us?
9. Today, Americans are living longer.

What are people doing?

What do people do?

Extension Activity

Ask an older person you know for some advice on healthy living.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Make a list of things to ask someone older about healthy living.
- Make sure you get advice on different categories like food, exercise, and free time activities.
- Write up their ideas in a paragraph using verbs for necessity and advisability.
- Bring your paragraph to class and read it to a partner.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I make a list of things to ask about healthy living.

☐
☐

I get advice for different categories.

☐
☐

I use verbs for necessity and advisability.

☐
☐

I write a paragraph with my findings.

☐
☐

I read my paragraph aloud.

☐
☐

Target Words

- alert (adjective): quick to see and understand
e.g. Seniors stay alert by being active.
- lifestyle (noun): the way you live
e.g. Being active and eating well is part of a healthy lifestyle.
- retiree (noun): a person who no longer works
e.g. More and more retirees are volunteering.
- at least (expression): the minimum e.g. We've got to at least get out and walk.
- to recommend (verb): to suggest e.g. Take the medication your doctor recommends.
- diet (noun): the food and drink consumed by a particular group
Example: We've got to look at our diets.
- consumption (noun): the using of goods, like food
e.g. Cut down on red meat consumption.

Learning Points

Simple Present and Continuous Tenses

You use the Simple Present tense and the Present Continuous tenses to talk about the present in different ways.

You use the Simple Present tense:

- to talk about things that are always true
- to give general information
- to talk about habits and routines
- to talk about feelings (stative verbs)

You use the Present Continuous tense:

- to talk about an action happening now
- to talk about things happening around now
- to talk about things that are changing

Simple Present Tense	Present Continuous Tense
People live longer in North America today.	Today, Americans are living longer.
They go to school three days a week.	They are going back to school.
Seniors who visit the doctor regularly also live longer.	My grandmother is seeing the doctor next week.

Necessity and Advisability

When you talk about what is necessary, you use have got to and going to have to.

When you talk about what is advisable, you use need to, should, ought to, and had better.

Necessity	Advisability
If we can't go to the gym, we've got to at least get out and walk.	To live longer, we should continue to learn.
We're going to have to stay physically active.	We ought to travel.
Finally we've got to look at our diets.	We had better take the recommended medication.

