Let's Start!

Let's review!

Learning Outcome

Describe routines and regular activities in a wider range of social and work contexts

Ask your partner:

- What food do you think people, in general, had better eat less of if they want to stay healthy?
- What do you think you should eat more of to be healthier?

Can Do Statements

- I can write about healthy habits.
- I can discuss experiences I've had or haven't had.
- I can talk about what is necessary, advisable and preferable.

Let's Explore!

Gina, Tara, Grace, and Valerie are going to do some light exercise

* "Light exercise" is less strenuous activity like walking or cycling.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Dear Sally:

Gina, Tara, Grace and I have read your articles with advice for staying young longer. We've all decided that we've got to quit smoking and we're going to have to be more active. We're going to have to cut down on our consumption of sweets too. (Even though we'd prefer to eat those most tempting treats!) We all need to eat a little more sparingly. We'd better start this now before it's too late. To help, we've each chosen one day a week to plan a meal and some light exercise.

Tara suggested that we might want to get some more sleep. We haven't felt very calm or rested lately! She thinks we should get away from our computers at home more too! Some of us would rather shop that way, so we've thought of having a time limit.

I've downloaded a healthy living app. I'd rather have the information there whenever I need it. Thanks for the articles. We'll let you know how it goes.

Let's Practice!

Sally has been inspirational!

Instructions: Read the text and select all the sentences that talk about healthy habits.

We've decided to get some more sleep. We're all tired these days. We're going to be more active. We certainly have to cut down on sweets.

Although, we will miss pastries! Tanya has quit smoking. Isn't that wonderful! Finally, we've all decided to limit our time online in the evening.

Let's Practice!

Thank you for your articles Sally!

Instructions: Read the sentences. Select a box from the TIC TAC TOE to complete the sentence correctly. Complete a row of 3 squares horizontally, vertically or diagonally to win.

Learning Points

Offering Advice and Solutions

You can offer advice and solutions to people on how to improve their health or longevity.

Remember to offer advice politely and to use the modals could, should or might to propose a solution.

Here is a list of expressions you can use to offer advice and solutions:

- You should ...
- You need to ...
- You ought to ... (strong request)
- You had better ... (strong request)

Offering Advice and Solutions

We all need to eat a little more sparingly.

We'd better start this now before it's too late.

We also think we might want to get some more sleep.

Saying What is Necessary

When you say what is necessary to follow advice, you use have got to, or going to have to. Have got to focuses on now and in the future. Going to have to focuses on the future alone.

Saying What is Necessary

We have got to quit smoking.

We're going to have to be more active.

We're going to have to cut down on our consumption of sweets too.
